1 1.65 Chicago, Feb. 9.—Though bears made a savage attack upon the market, and local bulls sold freely for profit account, wheat held well to-day. Amid the wildest excitement, May wheat was pushed up to 1.11, and about the same time July sold at 1.00%. At the close May had lost half a point, but July held to the high point of the day.

Corn was steady and firm, having some of the better activity and advance of wheat.
